

God's finger touched her and she slipped away
From earth's dark shadows
to a brighter day;
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed her weary eyes,
And whispered, "Peace be thine."
To a beautiful garden this friend has gone,
To a land of perfect rest;
Though she is gone she still lives on
In the garden of memory.

Anna was born May 15, 1913 on the family farm, north of Tagus, ND, the daughter of Knute and Austa (Hallen) Asmundson. She was raised in that area and educated in rural schools in Ree Township. Anna graduated from Minot High School in 1932. While in Minot Anna did housekeeping for several years for different area families.

Anna married Joel Kjellberg in Glasgow, Montana. They made their home south of Blaisdell for four years and then bought a farm seven miles west of Berthold, where she lived the rest of her life. Her husband died March 1, 1961.

Anna was a member of Zion Lutheran Church, Berthold.
