

Psalm 46:10 (NIV)

10 "Be still, and know that I am God;
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth."

Astrid Breeding, 92, of Alamogordo, passed away Friday, November 9, 2007, at Casa Arena Blanca Nursing Home.

Astrid was born in Norma, N.D., on October 20, 1915, to John Ellis and Anna Marie (Nordstrom) Oberg. She grew up on the family homestead and attended high school in Kenmare, N.D. She married Gordon Breeding on November 17, 1934, in Kenmare, and they were married for 62 years. She was preceded in death by her husband, Gordon, her brother, Carl Oberg, and her sister Lillian Purdy. She is survived by her two children, Roger W. Breeding and his wife Claudia of Redmond, WA, and Connie J. Breeding of Alamogordo, N.M. She is also survived by her sister-in-law, Ida Oberg of Kenmare, N.D., and numerous nieces and nephews.

Astrid and Gordon lived in various Midwestern states when Gordon was working for Gamble-Skogmo. In 1951 they moved to Stanley, N.D., where they owned and operated the Gamble Store. Upon their retirement, they remained in Stanley. After Gordon passed away, Astrid moved to Alamogordo, N.M. in 2000.

In Alamogordo, Astrid lived at Amber Skies Mobile Home Park, then moved to The Aristocrat Assisted Living Community, and finally to Casa Arena Blanca. She enjoyed the weather in the southwest, the friendly people, her teddy bear collection, NMSU-A Theatre, and her cat, Jake.

Astrid was a member of the Stanley Baptist Church and the American Baptist Women's Mission Circle.
