

Dagny Lindberg was born September 17, 1928 in Columbus, ND, a daughter of Martin and Gunda (Kinsbeck) Lindberg. She was raised and educated in the Columbus and Bowbells, ND areas.

Dagny married Walter Ferm March 27, 1946 in Montana. They made their home in Bowbells. Walter passed away August 13, 1988. Following his death she moved to Minot.

She enjoyed having family and friends over for a good game of pinochle and lunch. In her earlier years she loved bowling and dancing. While living in Minot one of her past times was playing bingo. She loved her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren and in recent years enjoyed following her great-grandchildren and their sporting events.
