

Final Harvest

He was bound to the land from the day of his birth His roots anchored deep in the fertile earth
Nurtured, sustained, by the soil he grew
And his life, like his furrows, ran straight and true.

In faith, each spring, he planted the seeds
In hope, to reap his family's needs
With patience, he waited for the harvest to come To gather the fruits of his labor home.

Ever turning seasons, the years sped past 'Til the final harvest came at last Then claimed anew by beloved sod
He was gathered home to be with God.
