

Doris Olson, 95, Bowbells, passed away Friday, February 27, 2009 in a Minot hospital following complications from hip surgery.

Doris Hansen was born on December 13, 1913, a daughter of Hans and Hilma (Swenson) Hansen in Dawson, MN. She was confirmed at Elmdale Lutheran Church, Niobe and attended school through the eight grade at Westminister School in Northstar Township. As a young lady, Doris worked for various Bowbells households, including Violet Wiper and Mildred Peterson as a housekeeper.

On April 23, 1933, she was united in marriage to Carl E. Olson, at the home of her parents in Northstar Township. They made their home in Northstar Township. Carl passed away in December of 1960. In 1961, she moved into Bowbells, where she had many wonderful neighbors, always willing to give a helping hand. Doris continued to live in Bowbells until July of 2001 when she entered Manorcare Health Services, transferring in October to the Kenmare Hospital, where she lived until her death.

She was a member of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Bowbells and the ladies group. Doris enjoyed baking, embroidering, working with flowers, attending grandchildren's school and 4-H activities.

Those Who Shared Her Life:

Son: Wayne (Clara) Olson; daughter: Colleen (special friend David Bird) Durward; eight grandchildren: Jodi, Janelle, Jamie, Jacqueline, Joy, Darris, Randy and Jeffrey; thirteen great-grandchildren; brother-in-law: Jack Walker; numerous nieces, nephews and many, many cousins.

Doris was preceded in death by her parents, husband, brother Wallace Hansen, sisters: Loraine Freed, Myrtle Walker; half brother Gust Johnson; half sister: Jenny (Johnson) Friberg and one great-grandchild.

*Celebrating the Life Of
Doris Olson
1913-2009*