

Make Me the Wind

*Heaven was calling my name
My world was getting smaller.
I knew it would never be the same*

*I gave it all I got, and all that I possessed,
But I believe in fate
So God controls the rest.*

*My card had been drawn,
I realized then
It was time to move on.*

*For eighty-three years I've loved and I've sinned
The Lord doesn't care
He's made me the wind.*

*I travel to and froe
I still tickle my grandkids.
Now with a light blow*

*Worries have been lifted
And my head is held high
I have been blessed and truly gifted.*

*You'd love it up here
The birds are beautiful
And my hearing is now crystal clear*

*Far is where I'll be, Happy and physically complete
I'm with my mom, and family
But without my wife, my darling, my sweet*

*The fifty-seven years we shared can never be compared
To what we'll have in heaven, where I'm waiting Theresa,
Don't be scared*

*I miss you all so much and I don't know where to start
But I feel I must
So I love you with all my heart.*

*Jesus told me just the other day
That heaven's closer then you think
And never to far away*

*It may seem that I'm gone way up in the skies.
But I promise....
I'm just resting my eyes.
I love you Grandpa*
