

Poem of Life

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.
We all have different
paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.

Dear Grandpa Dewey,

I love you so, so much, you have know idea how much I loved you. I am going to miss you like crazy. I am very happy for you because I know that you are in a better place. Why you? Why now? Why couldn't God have kept you here for one more day, so I could have told you goodbye and how much I love you. Can you please tell grandma Donna how much I love her and miss her? I wish I could have been there, to hold your hand and give you a kiss goodbye.

I loved you so much,
Matthew Flom
P.S. I love you.

Those wishing to attend the graveside service are asked to drive with both headlights and hazard lights on, following the car in front as close as safety permits. Use caution when crossing intersections. At the cemetery please double park, then follow the family graveside for the final prayers.

Following the graveside service everyone is invited to join the family for lunch and fellowship in the church fellowship hall.

Dewey's family would like to thank everyone for the many acts of kindness shown during this difficult time. Your thoughts, prayers and visits are deeply appreciated and will never be forgotten.
