

Florence Hoyt was born November 6, 1920, in Park River, ND, a daughter to Fred and Mabel (Edwards) Hoyt. She was raised and educated in several towns in North Dakota and Minnesota.

On October 25, 1939 she married Hollis N. Hanson in Roseau, MN. They lived, worked and raised their family in several cities in North Dakota. In 1976, while living in Ryder, ND, her husband passed away. Following his death Florence moved to Minot.

Florence worked for two years as a housekeeper at the Parker Hotel in Minot, and the next 17 plus years she worked there as a volunteer, serving in the kitchen for the senior's dinners.

She earned numerous awards for her volunteer work over the years. She attended Our Redeemer's Lutheran Brethren Church in Minot. She enjoyed watching television, reading, traveling, she loved birds, and loved to drive her car named "Jenny." Florence was always there for her family and was a very caring person. She enjoyed visiting her children and grandchildren and attended all of their school programs.
