

George Joseph Schumacher was born October 24, 1921 in Kenmare, ND to Nicholas R. and Katherine (Geislinger) Schumacher. He was raised in Kenmare and graduated from Kenmare Public School.

George entered the United States Army on November 6, 1942. He served during World War II in Ardennes, Rhineland, Central Europe and was with the 753rd Tank Battalion, 10th Armored Division during the Battle of the Bulge. He was honorably discharged on January 20, 1946 and he returned to North Dakota.

George married Evelyn Goebel on October 14, 1947 in Minot. Following their marriage they made their home on a farm southwest of Kenmare, where they raised milk cows until 1956, and farmed and ranched their entire lives. In 1979 George and Evelyn were awarded the Gooseneck Soil Conservation District Award. In 1986 they moved into Kenmare where they since have lived.

George was a member of St. Agnes Catholic Church, the American Legion Post #64, the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post #7049, and he was a member of the Last Man's Club, all in Kenmare.
