

Ida Dorothy Reimann was born near Coleharbor, ND, to Lily and Herman Reimann on May 19, 1930. At the time of her birth, her family was homesteading in Loring, MT. Her mother returned to Coleharbor to give birth to Ida at her parent's farm. Shortly after her birth, Ida and her mother rejoined the family in MT. In 1943, the family returned to Coleharbor, where Ida graduated from high school in 1948.

Ida began dating Leonard Hummel in 1944 and they were married on November 14, 1948. Ida and Leonard lived in Garrison for six years and raised four children there: Adrian, Victoria and the twins, Clifford and Claudia. In 1954, they moved to Minot and Julie was born there in 1959. Leonard owned and operated Hummel's Bee Line and Ida worked as the company's bookkeeper and administrator. Together they ran a successful business for many years. In 1973, they had their current home built on 4 1/2 acres just outside of Minot and continued to live there after they retired the business.

Ida was a loving and goodhearted person. She was a wife, mother, sister, daughter and friend to a great many people. She enjoyed painting, wood carving, reading, gardening and playing cards with family. Although Ida never cared to eat fish, she and Leonard spent many weekends at Lake Sacagawea where Leonard fished and she enjoyed reading in the sun and walking along the beach collecting unusual rocks that she found. In recent years, Ida and Leonard enjoyed their time together playing cards almost nightly. She will be greatly missed.

Those who shared her life: her husband of 61 years, Leonard; five children, Adrian Pierce of Nampa, ID, Victoria Hummel (deceased), Clifford Hummel of Minot, ND, Claudia LaMaster (husband, Bill) of Minot, ND, and Julie Trader of Montclair, VA; four grandchildren, Tobias Trader, Nate Trader, Jeanie Trader and Jason Trader; four great grandchildren, Joshua, Santiva, TC and Bradley; two sisters, Doris Hart of Murrieta, CA, and Joyce Falkenstein (husband, Wayne) of Regan, ND; one brother, Floyd Reimann (deceased); two sister-in-laws, Verine Reimann of Wilton, ND, and Willa Butler of Sun Valley, NV; as well as a multitude of extended family and good friends.

She was preceded in by her daughter, Victoria; her parents, Lily and Herman Reimann; and her brother, Floyd Reimann.

In Loving Memory

To everything there is a season,
and a time to every purpose under heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant and a time to pluck up that which is planted.

~ Ecclesiastes 3:2

Ida Hummel
1930 ~ 2010