To My Grandmother... with Love

I've seen the joy on your face
When I crawled onto your lap
And fell asleep, my hand in yours.

I've seen the pain in your heart
When I rejected your company
For that of a friend.

The concern was there when I spoke of my future, and its uncertainties,
But I brushed you aside.

The love and pride were there
When you spoke of my past
And my accomplishments.

But I ignored you Grandma
Forgive me, for I did not realize
Your value to me.

Once again I long to see
The love in your eyes,
When I tell you how much
I Love You.
