1 Corinthians 15:42-44

So will it be with the resurrection of the dead.

The body that is sown is perishable,
it raised imperishable; it is sown in dishonor,
it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness,
it is raised in power; it is sown a natural body,
it is raised a spiritual body.

If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body.

1 Corinthians 15:54-57

When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with the immortality, then the saying that is written will come true:

“Death has been swallowed up in victory”

“Where, O death, is your victory?

Where, O death, is your sting?”

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.

But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Jennie O. Olson was born September 12, 1914, a daughter of Anton and Anna (Amlien) Olson, in Toten, Norway. She was raised and educated in Deering, ND. She became a naturalized U.S. citizen on September 15, 1924. She served in the U.S. Navy from 1944-1945 stationed in Seattle, Washington. She was honorably discharged at the rank of seaman second class. She worked as a nurse's aid in western Montana (1955-1963) and in Minot, North Dakota (1968-1974). During this time she was also self-employed from time to time selling Avon and Home Interior products. She was married to Carl S. Vedvig from 1971 to 1977. She was a member of the Church of Christ in Minot.
