

Marilynn J. Baer, 59, Minot, died peacefully Thursday, June 11, 2009 in her home.

Marilynn J. Turner was born on March 25, 1950, the daughter of Louis and Ethel (Willert) Turner in Fargo, ND. She was raised and educated in Fargo and Minot.

She was once married to LaVerne Kreger. To this union three children were born, Richard, William and Michael. Later she married Dennis Baer.

Marilynn worked as a teacher, a job that she truly enjoyed. She also enjoyed working with animals, gardening and spending time with her children and grandchildren.

Two of Marilyn's favorite sayings were: "You got to keep keeping on" and "family takes care of family."

She is survived by her sons, Richard (Billie Jo) Kreger and their children, Sarah, Levi and Logan, Clear Lake, SD, William Kreger and his children, Emily and Wylie, Minot, and Michael Kreger and his daughter Brooke, Minot; mother, Ethel Turner, Sawyer; brothers, Don (Nancy) Turner, Glasgow, MT, and Ed (Pam) Turner, Minot; several nieces, nephews and cousins also survive.

Marilynn was preceded in death by her father, Louis.
