

Marlow was born on November 2, 1934, at Sawyer, ND, the son of Joseph and Rose (Affeldt) Smith. He was raised and educated in Sawyer and attended St. Peter Lutheran Church.

Marlow worked on the family farm until his late teens when he went to work for area farmers and ranchers and later returned to work with his brother Gary.

Marlow loved country music and enjoyed going places where he could visit with friends and listen to good country music. Marlow also enjoyed collecting John Deer memorabilia.
