

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd,
I shall not want.*

*He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside
the still waters.*

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

*Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil, for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Marlyn was born August 24, 1935 in Kenmare, ND, the son of Martin O. and Edith (Nordstrom) Bomstad. He was raised and attended school in the Coulee area.

In 1956 he enlisted in the United States Army and served three years in Germany. He was honorably discharged and returned to North Dakota. He made his home in Kenmare where he lived and worked his entire life. He worked as a projectionist at the Kenmare Theater for 20 years.
