

Marvin was born on October 14, 1923, in rural Foxholm, ND, the son of Joseph and Mae (Colton) Clementich. He attended country school and in his youth worked for a local farmer as a farmhand.

He married Lilly Hanson on June 10, 1946, in Miles City, MT. The couple made their home in Burlington and Minot where Marvin worked for the North Dakota Highway Department for over 44 years retiring in 1989. After his retirement Marvin drove a motor grader for the city of Burlington and he and Lilly enjoyed traveling throughout North Dakota, making several trips to Medora.

Marvin loved gardening, Harley-Davidson Motorcycles and restoring old Model A's some of which he drove in Burlington Parades. Marvin's brothers and sisters were very musical and he enjoyed playing the guitar and the accordion.

He was a member of Moose Lodge in Minot and was very active with his coffee club of retired Highway Department employees in the Minot area.
