

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Otto H. "Rusty" Nissen, 66, Minot, died Saturday, April 19, 2008 in a Mandan hospital.

Otto was born November 24, 1941 in Minot, ND, the son of Otto H. and Edna (Stone) Nissen, Sr. He was raised in Drake and attended school in Drake and finished his education in Butte, ND.

He entered the United States Navy on February 12, 1960 and served in active duty on the Mediterranean Sea. Otto "Rusty" was honorably discharged on February 28, 1966. He then worked for the civil service as a diesel mechanic for nineteen years, spending five of those years in the Azores.

Rusty was an animal lover and took great pride in his dogs which he called "his kids".

Rusty lived life to the fullest and always had a joke to tell when he saw you.
