

Nadine Shaw, 44, Minot, ND, died Saturday, October 11, 2008, in a Minot hospital after a five year battle with breast cancer.

Nadine Dorothy (Streeper) Shaw was born November 7, 1963, a daughter of Eugene and Carmie (Lenertz) Streeper, in Minot, ND. Nadine attended Longfellow Elementary, Erik Ramstad Jr. High, and graduated from Minot High School in 1982.

Nadine was employed at Kentucky Fried Chicken before her career with Piggly Wiggly, Sun Mart, which is now known as Miracle Mart. After a number of years, she was promoted to manager of the Arrowhead Liquor Store, which was one of the proudest moments in her life. She loved her job, fellow co-workers and customers.

Nadine's hobbies included collecting angels and cookbooks, crocheting and needlepoint, Nodak Speedway races, cheering for NASCAR's Tony Stewart, watching the Minnesota Vikings, and most of all she loved spending time with her family.

Her loving family includes: daughter, Nicole Shaw and her fiancée, Joseph Duchscherer, Minot; son, Timothy Streeper, Minot; grandchildren, Blake Cunningham and Allissa Shaw, Minot; mother and father, Carmie and Gene Streeper, Minot; sister, Michele Welsh and her husband, Roger, and their children, Justin and Brandon Welsh, all of Minot; and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

Nadine was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Phillip and Catherine Lenertz; paternal grandparents, Dorothy Streeper and Clark Streeper; aunt, Marcy Zaback, and uncle, Claude Streeper.
