

Stanley was born on August 18, 1940, the son of Albert and Grace (Houston) Hauser in Minot, ND. He was raised on the family farm and attended school in Foxholm and Carpio, ND.

On June 15, 1963, he was united in marriage to Linda Dunn in Foxholm, ND. Following their marriage, they lived in Minot, for a time before moving to Foxholm, where he worked for various contractors throughout his life until starting his own business, Stan's Remodeling, in 1997, a business he owned and operated with his wife, Linda, at the time of his death.

Stanley enjoyed woodworking, fishing, hunting, and being with friends and family. He liked going to the casino and spending time with his grandson, Christopher.

Those Who Shared In His Life:

Wife of 45 years Linda, Foxholm, ND; son Paul Hauser, Foxholm; daughter Michele (Craig) Hammer and their son Christopher, Bismarck, ND; mother Grace Hauser, Foxholm, brothers: Larry (Marlys) Hauser, Foxholm, ND; Michael (Kathy) Hauser, Minot, ND; sisters: Janet Evanson, Burlington, Peggy (Bruce) Elberg, Burlington, Karen (Daniel) Rademacher, Minot; Numerous nieces, nephews and cousins also survive.

Stanley was preceded in death by his father Albert, brother Raymond and brother-in-law Buzz Evanson.