

Theresa is a Treasure

Everyone who knew Theresa loved her smile and hearty laugh. She loved God, her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, sisters, and all the rest of her family.

Holidays were big events for her. She always made Christmas special by playing carols on the piano. She and her sisters loved to have a good time when they all got together.

She had many challenges in her life that she worked extremely hard to overcome. She was a strong woman-she was a very private woman. She has been described as feisty by the staff at the Villa Maria Nursing Home where she spent the last four and a half years.

Theresa always said you need to watch what you're doing, and be careful in everything you do, and always save for a rainy day. And never go near the water! She definitely lived her life by these rules she set for herself.

Theresa loved beautiful things-her most prized possession was her piano she so diligently saved to buy. She loved flowers, her teacup and saucer collection, and her bird figurine collection. She treasured the many gifts and pictures given to her by her grandchildren.

Theresa always liked to stay close to home but did take the trip of her life when she boarded an airplane by herself and flew to Las Vegas to see Jerry, Kay, and granddaughter Lindsey. While there she even patted a donkey's head and we have a picture to prove it.

Her grandchildren have fond memories-Lindsey of Sunday drives and stopping at the Dairy Queen. Mike, Michelle, Brian, and Steve of playing In the Mood, side by side with Grandma on the piano, and all the Christmases spent with her.

Theresa leaves us with many memories and stories to tell. We all love her. We all will miss her. We all are sad she has left us, but also happy that she is at peace now. We have visions of her playing the piano up there in heaven along with the angels playing their harps.
