

*Now I lay my clubs to sleep Tomorrow I pray the Lord the highest score to keep Though I walk the hills and valleys of courses unknown
 I fear no fear, for he is with me in rain and sleet if I should seeing with all my might may the white ball achieve the height, straight and not sliced down the middle and no hooks A right wedge to choose To get me out of trouble and stay loose Putter for the right short game if I miss the hole it's not a crying shame Driver 1,5,7,or 9 Numbers I have to keep in mind Sand traps, bunkers, water hazards I am inclined but I know I will succeed someday to be top seed in my mind I've done the best In follow the rest Sneed, Hogan, and Tiger to name a few oh, I'll never be that good That's not important at all tomorrow is just another day, on the greens of life, Just me, my clubs and a silly white ball.*
