

Tillie and Harry on their wedding day,
August 23, 1944

God Bless Tillie

You asked God to take you to his Heavenly place
Where pain, deafness, and blindness you won't face
God granted you this April twenty-third, 2008.
Now you are reunited with Harry, your mate.

You've lived a good long and productive life
We know there were problems, toil and strife
You were left alone at quite a young age
To support yourself and manage life at every stage.

Working at restaurants wasn't always a pleasant task
But you accepted well with a lot of class.
Then at the Student Union at MSU
You baked pies better than anyone could do.

Your house was always so clean and neat
And your manicured lawn was hard to beat.
But you still had time to help people in need
Serving at the Home and Pantry was a service indeed.

Now it's time for us to say good-by
As you look down from the Heavenly sky
You were loved, Tillie, by both the young and old
And the memories of you will often be retold.

MAY YOU REST IN PEACE
