

Victoria was born on November 23, 1951, in Bismarck, ND the daughter of Leonard and Ida (Reimann) Hummel. She was raised in Garrison for three years before moving to Minot, where she graduated from Minot High School. She furthered her education at the Colorado Institute of the Arts, in Denver, CO.

Victoria worked as a self-employed graphic artist for many years. She also created unique pieces of furniture, such as small tables, mirror and earring holders, doing the carpentry work herself. She also illustrated children's books. Victoria enjoyed sewing, quilting and other crafts as well.

She spent the last two years fighting ALS while living with her brother in Nampa, ID. She was getting care by an ALS group in Nampa.

Victoria enjoyed a wide range of music, including contemporary flute music, Tex-Mex, alternative rock and Eddy Arnold. She always said she listened to Eddy Arnold before she was born and she always wanted to learn to play the flute. She also had a love for cats, two of whom she leaves behind, Pearl and Nicky. She once drove from Denver to Minot to pick up Pearl who was a kitten to her parent's cat. Her favorite cat, Timmy just passed away a few years ago.

Those Who Shared In Her Life: parents, Leonard and Ida Hummel, Minot; brothers: Adrian Pierce, Nampa, ID, Clifford Hummel, Minot, ND; sisters: Claudia Hummel-Lamaster, Minot, and Julie Ann Trader, Monclair, VA; one niece, three nephews and several cousins also survive.

She was preceded in death by her maternal and paternal grandparents.

