

Violet Eleanor Settergren was born July 26, 1919 to Oscar and Agnes (Anderson) Settergren-Wolfe in Dassel, MN. At a young age she moved with her family to Minneapolis, MN, where she was raised and educated.

Violet married Francis Brodin in October of 1940 in Minneapolis. They made their home there and to this union Carol and Mark were born. Francis passed away in 1962.

Violet married Robert P. Jensen on April 14, 1973 in Minneapolis. They made their home there for three years before moving to the Carpio and Berthold areas, where they since have lived.

Violet was a member of Carpio Lutheran Church and the Carpio Lutheran Church Women. She was a member of the Carpio Homemakers and the Carpio Senior Citizens. Violet enjoyed keeping up to date on current events in the world and she enjoyed doing crossword puzzles. She loved making afghans for her family. She also enjoyed the times spent with her family and would often cook large meals and made sure everyone was well fed. She had the gift of hospitality, making everyone feel welcomed. Violet was a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother who will be deeply missed.
