

God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around her
And whispered, "Come with Me."

With tearful eyes we watched her suffer
And saw her fade away,
Although we loved her dearly
We could not make her stay.

A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands to rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

It's lonesome here without you
We miss you so each day,
Our lives aren't the same
Since you went away.

When days are sad and lonely,
And everything goes wrong,
We seem to hear you whisper,
"Cheer up and carry on."

Each time we see your picture,
You seem to smile and say,
"Don't cry, I'm in God's keeping,
We'll meet again someday."

Yvonne was born June 1, 1932 in Minot, ND, the daughter of Otto and Gladys (Willson) Stober. She was raised in Ruso, ND, where she attended grade school. She attended Velva High School and graduated in 1950.

On November 5, 1950, Yvonne married Merle Lorenz at Ruso, ND. They moved to Minot and Yvonne was employed at Ellison's Department Store for two years. She then worked at Sear's Roebuck for 20 years until she retired in 1987.
