

Each life affects another's

We may not always realize that everything we do affects not only our lives but touches other's too.

For a little bit of thoughtfulness that shows someone you care, creates a ray of sunshine for both of you to share.

Everytime you offer someone a helping hand.

Everytime you show a friend you care, and understand.

Everytime you have a kind and gentle word to give, you help someone find beauty in this precious life we live.

For happiness, brings happiness and loving ways brings love.

And giving is the treasure that contentment is made of.

Dena was born to Mike and Linda (Scott) Baldrige on October 8, 1970 in Minot, ND. The family moved to Oroville, California and later to Reno, Nevada where she graduated from Reed High School in 1989. She attended one year of college at the University of Nevada-Reno and had worked as a classroom aide for the developmentally disabled.

Dena lived a life of illness and pain because of cerebral palsy, but yet always managed to look at the bright side, keeping her head up, and keeping the smile that would brighten up the darkest of rooms. She left a positive impact on everyone she met. She will be dearly missed and never forgotten.

Dena was preceded in death by her mother, Linda, grandfathers, John Scott and Jessie Baldrige.

She is survived by her father, Mike Baldrige, living in Oregon; brother, Mike Baldrige Jr., Reno, grandmothers, Elise Scott, Minot and Ruth Baldrige, Oroville, California.
