

Louise Linnertz, 89, Minot died Thursday, November 20, 2008 in a Minot nursing home.

Louise Schumacher was born on September 19, 1919, the third child of Nicholas and Katherine (Gieslinger) Schumacher, on the family farm near Kenmare, ND. She was confirmed at St. Agnes Catholic Church, Kenmare and graduated from Kenmare High School in 1938. Following graduation, she worked for the Kenmare Hospital as a nurse's aid.

On October 14, 1943, she moved into Minot, where she lived at the Henry Frost residence.

This would be where she would meet her future husband, James Linnertz. They were united in marriage on April 21, 1947. They had four sons, James, Richard, Thomas and Daniel. Louise would spend the next 16 years as a mother and homemaker.

In 1964, she began working for Josephine's draperies of Minot. She then worked for Voeller's Draperies in downtown Minot for several years. On her 75th birthday, she hung up her drapery needles and retired. On January 17, 2004, James died and in 2004 she moved to Edgewood Vista.

Louise enjoyed knitting, playing card, fishing and working with her indoor house plants.

She was a charter member of Little Flower Catholic Church, Minot.
